

BULLDOG BANTER

It was pay back time for the Halifax Wolverines after losing to the Bulldogs earlier in the week on home turf they came to play last Sunday evening, giving the Bulldogs a 7-1 slashing in their home rink. The previous night the Dogs visited Truro and in a gallant effort losing to the Bearcats by a score of 4-2, and the Friday night game with Amherst was postponed due to weather and Amherst failing to make the trip. With a very busy month of January and 2 make-up games added to it the Dogs schedule gets pretty hectic This week alone they will play this evening, Wednesday, against Woodstock which is a make-up game, Thursday they travel to Pictou and Friday they entertain Moncton here at home, 3 games in 3 nights makes the going a little tough. The last of the signed players on the January 10th deadline will be in the line-up tonight, Kevin Tomalty, an Edmonton native last played for the Neepawa Natives of the Manitoba Junior A Hockey League, a 19 year old with two years experience at the Junior A Level, Kevin is a right winger center who will hopefully add a little scoring punch to the Bulldogs new line-up.

The Bulldogs await the news of weather or not the sale of the Club will take place. There are three interested groups, one for sure that would end up moving the Team away and twp other where we are hopeful that it will remain local. The Dogs are assuming an announcement will be made by February 1st for one group for sure, at the printing of this Newsletter, of course, that decision was unavailable.

Bulldog fans are reminded to support the Dogs with the Wheel Pizza "50/50" draw which includes several winning prizes, the Farmers Dairy "Score-O" and, of course, "Chuck the Puck" for the kids.
